OSTERMOOR

YOU CAN WASH THE MATTRESS BEARING THIS LABEL

Soap, water and a brush are all that is needed to keep the outside of an Ostermoor Mattress sweet and clean. Inside never needs attention. Costs nothing for repairs. An occasional "outing" in the sun keeps it fresh and new, because it is built (not stuffed) of elastic, fibrous Ostermoor sheets. It cannot sag, lump nor pack like hair.

Make sure you get the genuine Ostermoor. Note the label put there to protect you against worthless imitations. We sell at factory prices and invite inspection.

Considering the weather, a good sized crowd was present at the C. O. F. fair in Woodmen's hall last evening. The catch-as-catch-can wrestling exhibition given by the Jacques brothers was clever and received enthusiastic applause from the crowd. The entertainment this evening will consist of a musical program of vocal and instrumental selections, including a song by little Miss Lorraine Langer, accompanied on the piano by little Miss Rowley.

Of all the pictures that have been shown in the many picture houses in Barre for the past year, it has been the policy of the Theatre Comique to lead them all. This popular theatre has always put up a great show and to-day it has a picture that surpasses any that has been seen here and that is saying a great deal. The name of this is, "A Salvation Army Lass." This is a great picture and all the workings of this noble army among the folks of the under world is pictured in such realistic manner that one is held in breathless suspense until the very last. The other pictures are very good and this program is the best ever offered at the Comique.

EVOLUTION OF ART.

The Topic of Address Before Barre Club Women Last Night.

The Barre Civic Federation was entertained last evening by the Gleaners' club at the home of Mrs. A. W. Badger in one of the series of entertainments to be given the Federation by the different women's clubs. Mrs. C. H. Spooner, wife of the president of Norwich university and chairman of the art committee in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest of the evening and gave a lecture on the evolution of art. Mrs. Spooner has devoted much time to the study of art and preparing lectures on the subject. She gave a very interesting and informing history of paintings and artists in the different periods from ancient to modern times.

Her lecture was supplemented by 1,000 pictures, covering thoroughly the work of the artists from the earliest times down to the present. These pictures were passed around during the lecture and were viewed with eager interest by the forty ladies present. The work of Vermont artists was taken up in her discourse and made especially interesting.

Following the lecture a social hour was given during which music was furnished by Bachelors' orchestra and refreshments of fruit salad and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Spooner was presented a large bouquet of roses by the ladies of the club. This lecture is to be given by Mrs. Spooner in several of the cities in the state.

"FATHER" ABELL DEAD.

West Haven Man Was Long in State Legislature.

Fairhaven, April 15.—Rodney C. Abell affectionately known to thousands of Vermonters as "The Father of the House," died yesterday afternoon at his home in West Haven, aged 78 years, of pneumonia with other complications.

Mr. Abell had a remarkable legislative record. He was a member of the general assembly in 1859, 1860, 1861, 1862, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1866, 1867, 1868, 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900. He was also a senator from Rutland county in 1870. It was said of him, that owing to his extraordinary length of service he had become the most parliamentary in any possible house. In his home town he held most of the town offices, and was a member in chancery for the United States. He was also a member of the state board of equalization in 1874 and 1875.

Mr. Abell was elected president of the First National bank in 1882, and had since held that position. He was not married and is survived by his cousin, Miss Fannie L. Nelson.

No Vermonters, perhaps, was held in greater esteem and affection by the plain people of the town, county and state than "Father Abell," and his death removes one of the fine old figures of by-gone legislative days.

Rodney C. Abell was born in Benson, Oct. 27, 1831, the son of Solomon P. and Nancy (Allen) Abell. He studied at Poultony and was graduated from Union college in 1854, being a member of the Phi Beta Kappa. He studied law at Albany and was admitted to practice in 1856, beginning at West Haven. His notable career followed.

WOMEN CALM IN PANIC.

Teachers Get Chinese Pupils Out After Crowd Stamped.

New York, April 15.—Four teachers in charge of a score of Chinese children on the third floor of the building 15 and 17 Doyers street, kept the children singing while people stamped from the floor above in a fire panic. After the building had been emptied the four teachers marched the little orientals out quietly and the pupils did not know until they reached the street that they were not being put through their regular fire drill.

Miss Florence Dixon presides over the school. She heard a shuffling of feet overhead and saw a score or more of frightened Chinese passing the school-room door at full speed. The children were getting excited at the sight of the men rushing downstairs, and in a moment more, Miss Dixon knew they might rush in a panic for the stairway.

"Now, children," said Miss Dixon, "we will sing."

A full verse of the song was sung; then the school fire alarm was sounded and the children lined up as they do in the regular fire drill.

The Budding Poet.

Editor—Is this your first effort.
Budding Poet—Yes, sir. Is it worth anything to you?
Editor (with emotion)—It's worth 3c if you will promise not to write anything more for publication until after this has been printed. I want your entire output, you understand.
Budding Poet—I'll promise that, all right. When will it be printed?
Editor—Never, while I'm alive.—Catholic Tribune.

The Modern Mary.

Mary had a little lamb; its fleece was white as snow. Would Mary ever sell the lamb? Why, what a question! No! She kept the lamb in luxury for many, many years, and every now and then sell the fleece and take the cash and put it in the bank until she had a fortune of the very topmost rank. While Mary was at wise young girl, her father had a pull, and through his lobbying he kept the tariff up on wool.—Chicago Evening Post.

The annual communication of Granite lodge, No. 35, F. & A. M., will be held Friday evening at 7 o'clock, for the dispatch of business and election of officers. Through the kindness of the ladies of the O. E. S., a banquet will be served at the close, to which all Master Masons are cordially invited. Per order of W. M.

The amusement committee of Clan Gordon, No. 12, will meet on Thursday evening, April 15, at 7 o'clock, in their rooms in the Eastman block.

Special conclave of St. Aldegar commandery, No. 11, Thursday evening, April 15; work, red cross degree. R. C. Whitaker, E. C.

NOT ALWAYS RIGHT

but we are getting our mistakes now so far apart that you will have to watch us pretty close to detect our errors. As our stock gets larger and our business increases it gives us better chances to be sure that we are right. Mr. Morse's trip this week to New York is another try to be right, right with what the trade want and right with the price asked for our garments. This trip means something that we are out of but are bound to have and have it when most wanted.

NEW SUITS AND COATS.

It takes only one night to get to New York and one day to get new Suits home here to Barre.

You may see new Suits to-day and then see the following day Suits that were in New York when you were here looking the day before. To keep posted, make frequent visits to our Garment Department.

This has been a big Suit season and the end is not yet in sight. There will be more sold than there have been, and we are going to take care of every customer the very best we can.

Our line of Regal Shoes for Ladies is now ready. If you wear one pair that is enough to make you a steady Regal customer (that is what ladies tell us who have worn them).

Dr. Cowell's Lecture.

Harper's Weekly of New York, commenting upon a vote by one of the schools upon the prominent Americans whose names would be appropriate in the living "Hall of Fame," said, "The vote for the living hall of fame gave Edison the first place and Dr. Cowell of Philadelphia, second. It would be difficult perhaps to get the leading educators to unite on even ten of the greatest men in America, but for creating much out of nothing, and doing great deeds with the smallest means Russell Conwell has no peer in the United States. As a lecturer his engagements average two hundred nights a year and from his lecture fees he has contributed towards the education of poor students more than half a million dollars."

What The English Press Says.

The great orator just seems to hold the people as children stare at brilliant and startling pictures.—London News.

Russell Conwell is the only lecturer in America who can fill a hall in this city with three thousand people at a dollar a ticket.—Philadelphia Times.

The people of Barre will have the opportunity of hearing this noted lecturer in the opera house Wednesday evening, April 21 at 8 o'clock for the small sum of 35, 50 and 75 cents. Do not forget the subject, "Silver Crown, or How Men Succeed."

NEW HAMBURG AND LACES.

Just a peep at these goods will at once convince you that this department is out for business of the right sort.

Laces while of a better grade of a better style are but little higher priced than the poorer ones that you may have seen.

Embroideries are more universally worn than ever in the history of the Embroidery business. To get fine edges that are smooth you will not have to pass our new line. These are all Muser Brothers' goods and after you have used these Faces and Embroideries once you will better understand what there is in the name Muser Brothers.

Our line of Corset Covers at 25c and 50c is very hard to equal.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SETS.

These Sets come in four pieces to match. Each Set has one robe, corset cover, long skirt and pair of drawers.

These Sets come in a variety of styles and are made by a New York maker that makes these Sets for R. H. White & Co. of Boston. They are right and beautiful.

Our Muslin Underwear Department has got to be up to any in Vermont before 1909 is finished. It's a line that we have neglected, but now are after that business good and hard, with the right kind of merchandise.

Our line of Corset Covers at 25c and 50c is very hard to equal.

A. P. Abbott & Co. Trunks and Bags

Good Values in the Bakery Dept.

We have not been saying much about the Bakery Department lately for the simple reason that the demand has been more than we could supply. We have put on more bakers and are in shape to greatly increase our output. We are not sparing any pains or expense in getting the best workmen and the best material and making this by far the best bakery in this state. In fact, we expect to show you as large a line and better quality of goods than you would find in the large city bakeries.

Flour is much higher, but you will find the quality of our Cream Bread better than ever.
